REDS USE RESERVES TO STEM NEW THREAT TO STALINGRAD

Nazi Stronghold On Upper Caucasus Is Being Tightened

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Germany's mechanized armies, fast closing an octopus-like stranglehold on the upper Caucasus, reported the fall of Tikhoretsk on the Caucasian railway 90 miles south of Rostov today and developed a new pincer threat to the great Volga river steel center of Stalingrad.

Tikhoretsk is on the Stalingrad-Novorossiisk railway terminating at the Black Sea, just below Kerch Strait.

Soviet advisers said Russia's carefully saved reserves were going into action against the terrific Nazi offensive, fighting bitterly to stem the new threat to Stalingrad.

Dispatches from Moscow said the Red armies, taking up new positions along a strong line east of the Don river, were driving back powerful German tank assaults 95 miles southeast of Stalingrad.

A second big scale battle was in progress in the Kleitskaya sector, 80 miles northwest of Stalingrad, where the Russians said the upper jaw of a German pincer aimed at Stalingrad was stopped dead.

The danger in the Caucasus increased, however, as the Germans drove new wedges into Soviet lines at a great sacrifice in lives, front-line dispatches said.

A bulletin from German field headquarters said Nazi spearheads, racing southward from Voroshilovsk, had reached the main trans-Caucasian railway linking the Black and Caspian seas.

This apparently meant that the invaders had seized the rail line below Armavir, key junction on the route. It would represent an advance of about 235 miles into the Caucasus.

As the crisis mounted, with the Red armies hurled back in the two sectors during bitter all-night fighting, Europe's capitals rang with new talk of an Allied second front in western Europe.

"Every day brings nearer the time when the agreement signed between Britain and the U. S. S. R. on the urgency of establishing a second front in Europe will be put into effect," the Moscow radio said.

In London, Premier Pieter S. Gerbrandy of the Netherlands government-in-exile broadcast to his countrymen in Nazi-occupied Holland.

Joint Session Hears Address By Wilhelmina

Queen of The Netherlands Says "No Surrender" Is Still Motto

VISITING WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Aug. 6.—(P)—Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, the first woman in her own right to visit the United States, told Congress today that "no surrender" remains the motto of her people, suffering though they are under the alien rule of an invader in Asia and Europe.

The grandmotherly monarch, addressing a joint session of the house and senate, said: "I imagine what it means for a liberty-loving country to be in bondage, for a proud country to be subject to harsh alien rule."

"What would be the American answer if an invader tried to cover his wholesale systematic pillage with the firing squad, the concentration camp and the abomination of the hostage practice?"

The 61-year-old queen, who issued a proclamation of "flaming protest" and sent her armies into battle when the German forces invaded Holland in May, continued: "I doubt not that your answer would be: Resistance, resistance until the end. Resistance in every practicable shape or form."

"This is exactly the answer my people have given, and are giving every day. Inside occupied territory and outside, the fight goes on." The Netherlands government forced to flee has set up headquarters in London.

The queen arrived here yesterday for an official White House visit.

Three Strikes In The State Are Settled

By the Associated Press

Walkouts ended at three Pennsylvania plants today and work on war contracts was resumed, while at a fourth factory a new strike developed.

Officials of the United Steelworkers Union ordered a picket line established at the plant of the McKay Chain Company at York after negotiations for a new contract covering the plant's more than 400 employees reached a dead-end.

At Pottstown 1,700 workers, most of them members of the CIO-USA which is recognized by the company as the exclusive bargaining agent, returned to work at (Turn to Page Eleven)

Women After War Industries Jobs Are Advised To Train

Pittsburgh, Aug. 6.—(P)—Women seeking positions in war industries were urged to procure preliminary training today by a U. S. employment service official who said employers in this steel capital are "beginning to show interest" in hiring women.

"We are receiving more inquiries from women workers than ever before," said S. Chapman Wright, manager of the Pittsburgh branch office of the employment service. "However, most employers at present seem most interested in hiring women who have had some sort of training."

Wright estimated that about 25,000 additional workers will be

BARUCH HEADS COMMITTEE TO PROBE RUBBER PROBLEM

Man Charged With Treason To Be Hanged

Traitor in Mich. Who Aided Escape of Nazi From Canadian Camp Sentenced

CONVICTED BY JURY

Detroit, Aug. 6.—(P)—Max Stephan, first person in 148 years to be convicted of treason in the United States, was sentenced in federal court today to be hanged.

U. S. District Judge Arthur J. Tuttle directed that Stephen, German-born American citizen, be hanged on Nov. 13, 1942, within the walls of the Federal Detention Prison at Milan, Mich.

Stephen was convicted in federal court here of aiding the flight of a Nazi flier escaped from a Canadian concentration camp.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Tuttle said that since "the lives of millions of our boys will be taken in the course of this war, the court should not be hesitant in taking the life of one traitor for the sake of the cause."

Judge Tuttle said it was now impossible to impose a sentence that would "teach Max Stephan a lesson so he won't do it again."

He said, "there was nothing more that Stephen could have done in the way of helping Hans Peter Krug (the escaped pilot) get back to Germany."

The courtroom was packed as the first man convicted of treason since the famous "Whiskey rebellion" was brought before the federal judge for sentence.

When he was summoned before the bench, he rose quickly and came forward. Asked whether he had anything to say, the convicted traitor, in guttural tones, asserted: "All I have to say is that I am not guilty of treason. That is all."

When the judge read off the sentence that gives Stephen only a little more than three months to live, a hush descended on the courtroom. There was no demonstration.

Threat Letter In Kunze Trial

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 6.—(P)—Gerhard Kunze, father of Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, former leader of the German-American Bund, was recalled to the stand today on behalf of the Rev. Kurt E. S. Molzahn, Philadelphia Lutheran pastor charged with conspiring with the younger Kunze and three others to supply American military secrets to the Axis powers.

Shortly after the elder Kunze, a church organist in Philadelphia, left the stand yesterday, Prosecutor Thomas J. Dodd, Jr., informed newsmen that he and an assistant, Joseph Conney, had received an incoherently written threatening letter.

The prosecutor dismissed the incident as the work of a crank and said: "It doesn't worry me at all."

STRIKE AT YORK

York, Aug. 6.—(P)—The 400 employees of the McKay Chain Company were ordered out on strike today by the CIO United Steelworkers Union after negotiations for a new contract ended in disagreement. Picket lines were thrown around the plant, which is engaged in war production.

needed by Pittsburgh district firms before the end of the year. "It stands to reason that many women will take up posts in war-time industries," he continued. "Women who have training will have the best opportunities and I urge women thinking of applying for war-time jobs to begin their training immediately."

With the aid of federal funds, vocational courses are being offered through the local board of education to help train women for industry.

Wright said women already are employed on assembly lines, doing light jobs in machine shops and acting as inspectors.

ROOSEVELT VETOES BILL FOR AGENCY

In Message Sent to Senate President Says Legislation Would Hamper the War Effort

GRAIN IS IN DEMAND

Washington, Aug. 6.—(P)—Asserting it would block progress of the war effort, President Roosevelt vetoed today legislation to create an independent agency to stimulate production of rubber from grain and simultaneously created a committee to look into the whole rubber problem.

Bernard M. Baruch, who was head of the War Industries Board in the last war, will be chairman of the committee named to recommend the best program to produce the synthetic rubber necessary for the war effort and for essential civilian use.

Serving with Baruch are Dr. James E. Conant, president of Harvard University, and Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Roosevelt said the bill he was vetoing—passed by congress with the backing of the farm block—would hamper instead of aid the war effort.

The measure, the president said in a message to the senate, would break up centralized control in the War Production Board and override priorities established by WPE.

Asks Pay For Dependents

Washington, Aug. 6.—(P)—Asserting that failure to make immediate cash payments to service men's dependents under the pay allotment and allowance act was causing severe hardships, Representative Rankin (D-Miss.) opened a new drive today to speed them up.

Rankin was sponsor of recently enacted legislation under which dependents received financial aid from the government to supplement payments taken directly from a service men's monthly checks. However, while the benefits started accruing on June 1, the law stipulated that the initial payment be withheld until Nov. 1, when the accumulated amounts will be released.

Rankin said he planned to ask the house today to give unanimous consent for consideration of a bill he introduced last Monday directing the war and navy departments to begin making the payments immediately, especially in hardship cases.

Lake Rescue Is Dramatic

Standish, Mich., Aug. 6.—(P)—Two more persons who were aboard a fishing tug which foundered Sunday in Saginaw today were found alive today on Lone Tree Island by coast guards of the Bay City station.

They were identified as Eugene Snavre, 27, and his wife, Fern, 21, of Kawkawlin.

This brought the number of survivors to four. Nine persons lost their lives when the boat capsized after striking a rock reef during a fishing trip.

Standish, Mich., Aug. 6.—(P)—Another dramatic chapter in the Great Lakes' latest story of shipwreck and drowning unfolded today after the rescue of a second survivor from the tragic Sunday fishing cruise of 13 persons on Saginaw Bay.

PITTSBURGH ALARM

Pittsburgh, Aug. 6.—(P)—Stations and roundhouses of railroads here were blacked out for a half-hour early today by a "red" air alarm test. Powerhouse whistles of the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Pittsburgh and Lake Erie lines sounded the alert. Ralph Griswold, chief air raid warden, said he was checking to learn the source of the alarm.

Man Who Once Headed Silver Shirts of America, Found Guilty of Sedition

ASSOCIATES CONVICTED

Indianapolis, Aug. 6.—(P)—William Dudley Pelley, convicted on 11 counts of criminal sedition and conspiracy and facing a possible maximum sentence of 220 years in prison, based his hopes for freedom today on a new trial.

Should he escape sentence on his conviction here, however, he is under sentence in North Carolina to serve two to three years for violating that state's securities laws. Pelley also was indicted recently at Washington on a sedition charge.

A motion for one will be filed within three days, Defense Attorney Floyd Christian said, and if it is denied the case will be appealed promptly to the U. S. circuit court of appeals in Chicago.

The spruce little man who once headed the Silver Shirts of America was convicted last night by a federal court jury which also convicted two business associates, Lawrence A. Brown and Miss Agnes Marian Henderson. Brown and Miss Henderson were found guilty of one count of conspiracy to commit sedition.

The three were officers of the Fellowship Press, a publishing house at Noblesville, Ind., where Pelley's magazine, the Gallilean, was printed once a week. The government charged statements in the Gallilean were made "willfully to cause or attempt to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny and refusal of duty in U. S. military forces."

Will Question Steel Chiefs

Washington, Aug. 6.—(P)—Senate advocates of a cargo-carrier expansion program that would combat the submarine menace searched today for a solution of the steel problem, which led to the maritime commission to swamp the plan of A. J. Higgins, New Orleans shipbuilder, to make 200 Liberty ships.

The defense investigating committee called Reese Taylor, chief of the iron and steel division of the War Production Board, to tell what he could of the steel supply and allocations.

Chairman Truman (D-Mo.) meanwhile, condemned the navy department's bureau of ships for "negligence and wilful misconduct" in dealing with a "vehicle important to the success of any invasion attempt."

Truman also accused the bureau of ships of "biased and prejudiced treatment" of the Higgins industries in insisting that the shipyard use models of the bureau's design "despite the repeated failures thereof."

Forty-Four Men Leaving For Reception Center Tomorrow

Large Crowd, Including the Struthers-Wells Band, to Join In Farewell

NEXT GROUP SATURDAY

Forty-four Warren county men who passed their physical examinations at Erie two weeks ago will leave tomorrow morning by train for a reception center where they will start their training as members of the United States armed forces.

It is expected that there will be a large crowd on hand to bid farewell to the group, first to leave since the plan of giving the men a 14-day furlough between induction and start of training was resumed in Pennsylvania.

It was announced today that the Struthers-Wells band will be on hand in uniform to give the men a send-off. Members of the citizens' committee also will be present to give each of the boys cigarettes and a card which will entitle them to a new suit.

Woman Wins Plea For Stay Of Execution

New Orleans, Aug. 6.—(P)—Sentenced to die Monday for the 1940 St. Valentine's Day murder of a Texas salesman, Mrs. Annie Beattie (Tom) Jo Henry, 26-year-old housewife, has won a reprieve from the Louisiana supreme court to allow time to decide whether the state legally could execute her.

The supreme court yesterday granted her plea for a stay in a defense attack on constitutionality of the state law which changed the mode of legal executions from hanging to death in the electric chair during litigation of her case.

In ordering the stay the court directed the parish sheriff and the trial judge to show cause Oct. 5 why the relief asked by the convicted woman should be granted.

Pittsburgh Boy Makes a Hit Leading Symphony Orchestra

BY JOHN SELBY

New York, Aug. 8.—(P)—A chunky 12-year old boy from Pittsburgh stayed up way past his bedtime last night to conduct the venerable Philharmonic-Symphony Society before some 8,500 cheering patrons.

The boy was Lorin Maazel and he was making his debut before a Manhattan audience at Lewisohn Stadium, which is concluding its 25th season next week.

The odd thing was that Lorin impressed the orchestra as much as he did the audience. The men as he played for him willingly

Washington, Aug. 6.—(P)—Formation of the first two of an undisclosed number of entire divisions of infantry to move to a battle front by air was announced today by under-secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, along with the creation of a new American-Canadian force of super-specialists in offensive warfare.

The 82nd and 101st Infantry Divisions at Camp Claiborne, La., will be the first of the air-borne units, which will be streamlined down to a strength of about 8,000 men each. All their weapons and equipment will be moved by planes and gliders.

In action, the air-borne divisions will fight as infantry after the manner of similar German army divisions. The commander of the 82nd is Brigadier General Mat-

TRAIN RIDER SAYS HE STARTED CIRCUS FIRE

Pittsburgh, Aug. 6.—(P)—Pennsylvania Railroad Detective S. H. Simmons said today a negro arrested at nearby Duquesne on a charge of illegal train riding told of starting the Ringling Brothers circus fire which destroyed 29 animals at Cleveland Tuesday.

Simmons said the suspect, taken into custody while riding a freight train, had menagerie meal tickets indicating he was an employee of the circus.

The detective quoted the man as saying he tossed a match into hay where the animals were eating because another man had threatened to stab him if he didn't.

Britain To Be Given Choice of Granting Independence or Facing Passive Conflict for Freedom

WASHINGTON MAY ACT

BULLETIN

London, Aug. 6.—(P)—Reuters news agency reported from Bombay today that Mohandas K. Gandhi said if the All-India Congress party adopted the new resolution calling on the British to quit India, he would send a letter to the viceroy, not as an ultimatum, but as an earnest plea to avoid conflict. He said there would be an interval between adoption of the resolution and opening of his projected mass civil disobedience campaign against British rule.

By the Associated Press
A deadlock in the crisis arising from India's demand for immediate independence from Great Britain appeared inevitable today amid conjecture that President Roosevelt might address an eleven-hour appeal to India, not to complicate "the task of those who are fighting for the preservation of human freedom."

The quotation is from Secretary of State Hull's recent broadcast, in which Mr. Hull, without mentioning India by name, emphasized that American sympathy for freedom-seeking peoples was reserved for those "by their acts show themselves worthy of it."

In a session starting tomorrow, barring a last-minute compromise, the All-India Congress is expected to authorize Mohandas K. Gandhi to lead India's 390,000,000 in "a mass struggle on non-violent lines on the widest possible scale" against British rule.

The chances of a solution appeared meager.

In London, Sir Stafford Cripps, lord privy seal and Prime Minister Churchill's deputy in parliament, declared firmly that Britain intended to "preserve law and order" in India until after the war.

"The hard facts of war make a complete change in India's government impossible at the moment," Sir Stafford said.

In Bombay, the All-India Congress working committee was equally adamant, declaring it was hopeless to appeal to Britain again. Bombay observers agreed that the program for a mass civil disobedience campaign was almost certain to be ratified by the All-India Congress tomorrow.

Tension Over Second Front Is Increasing

London, Aug. 6.—(P)—European capitals exhibited growing tension today as official quarters combated with the press and radio to keep the second front issue a dominant theme.

Broadcasting from London, Premier Pieter S. Gerbrandy of the Dutch government in exile told his countrymen in the German-occupied Netherlands last night that the tide of war is turning and urged them to "await with wise patience the moment when the call comes from here not only to take a passive but also an active part" in the opening of a new front.

At the same time the Moscow radio declared that "every day brings nearer the time when the agreement signed between Britain and the U. S. S. R. on the urgency of establishing a second front in Europe will be put into effect."

Anxiety over the situation, the Russian broadcast said, "is driving the Hitler gangsters to furious and frantic efforts in south Russia" where the Nazi armies are making a desperate bid to win control of the vital Caucasian oil fields.

German preoccupation with the second front issue was reflected in a fresh flood of propaganda from Nazi sources emphasizing the strength of the defense being completed in western Europe.

PLAN NOW FOR A SURPRISE BLACKOUT

Any time between now and September first you should be prepared for a surprise air raid drill and blackout. This information was received in an Associated Press dispatch to the Times-Mirror Wednesday, and confirmed in official advices received by the Warren County Defense Council.

Pennsylvanians are learning that the state's blackout law is not just something to decorate the statute books, but an enactment which places heavy penalties on offenders.

Several Pittsburgh residents arrested after the last blackout, were arraigned in court, and six who failed to comply with the regulations drew the maximum penalty of $200 fine or ninety days in jail. One was a fresh motorist who "balled out" officers. Two were tailors who neglected to turn out the lights in their shops. One was a man who refused to take shelter when told to do so by a warden. Another drove his car with headlights turned on.

Everyone must recognize the fact that practice blackouts are not some kind of game, but serious business, planned to teach us how to protect lives and property in case of air raids by enemy planes. A great many people still take the attitude that "it can't happen here," while others are the kind who won't cooperate in any public undertaking unless forced to do so. A few are careless about learning and observing the law, like the Pittsburgh tailors, who paid $200 each.

To date the Warren County Defense Council has been lenient, although some violations of a month ago are yet undisposed of. In the future officials of the Council will be required to be more strict and all persons who fail to observe the law must expect to receive the penalties which it provides.

If you are not prepared in every way to participate in a surprise blackout you run the danger of being charged with failure to observe the regulations. Take no chances. Leave nothing undone to assume your responsibility in the blackout. It may come tonight, tomorrow night or two weeks from tonight. Like the enemy bombers we are preparing to fight off, there will be no advance warning. If you fail to cooperate you will doubtless be called upon to explain why. Get busy now!

A LITTLE COMPETITION

Mr. Harold L. Ickes insists that trouble will come out of the OPA's decision to eliminate gasoline dealer rationing in the new East Coast system. He is afraid price cutting will result.

The public does not share that fear. A little price competition is appreciated by consumers. But more than that, the motoring public has the notion that available gasoline should be distributed where it can be used, and not left to lie idle in some areas while others suffer from drought. The new regulation is designed to remedy that evil.

It is sincerely hoped that appeal of the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross for more women to assist in the surgical dressing work will not go unheeded. The quota in Warren is 5,000 bandages a week, and that means many hours of work. Interested women are urged to report at the headquarters in Market street.

Forty-four men will leave Warren tomorrow morning for an induction center, and another group almost as large will depart Saturday at the same time. Better be on hand to join in the farewell which will be headed by the Struthers-Wells band. So long, men, good luck and Godspeed!

The price of gasoline was reduced two and one-half cents per gallon in this area yesterday, but that's little comfort to the motorists whose tires are down to the cord.

Late news dispatches seem to indicate that Gandhi may have discovered that he would encounter some difficulty delivering India to the Japs.

Donations are still being received for the Warren County Chest Fund. How about sending in yours?

Great weather for picnics and reunions.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — If medals could be given before a man ever goes into action in this war, one should certainly be awarded Joaquin Miguel Elizalde, who for nearly four years has been resident commissioner of the Philippine Commonwealth.

The other day Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippines in exile, walked into the White House for a conference with President Roosevelt. When he came out he told the press that, on behalf of Elizalde, he had offered the latter's 70-foot Diesel motorized yacht, Limbos, and its all-Filipino crew to the United States for the duration. The President, he said, had accepted it and the yacht would be commissioned immediately as a patrol boat.

Within a few days came word that "Mike" (as he enjoys being called) Elizalde would don the uniform of an officer of the Coast Guard (with Philippine insignia) and become commander of his own vessel.

Under his command will be two Philippine graduates of Annapolis who have been attached to the U. S. Army. (That may sound silly, but it's one of those laws of the land. All Annapolis graduates who are Filipinos serve in the Army.)

Behind these two simple announcements is one of the real tragedies of the fall of the Philippines and a story of one man's courage to carry on in the face of personal disaster.

"Mike" Elizalde has been and is one of the most popular young men in Washington. Although not a native Filipino (he's Spanish), his family was one of the wealthiest and most influential in the islands when disaster struck. His personal fortune was estimated by friends to be in the neighborhood of $6,000,000.

His companies included gin and rum distillers; lumber, insurance, paint, rope, floor wax and shipping firms; gold and iron mines; sugar mills; and cattle ranches.

In the sweep of the Japs across Luzon, all of that was wiped out. There are close members of Elizalde's family from whom he has had no word since the fall of Manila.

HE MIGHT have salvaged something by selling his yacht. But he preferred to give it to the United States. He might have avoided personal danger by continuing in his post. But he prefers to take himself and his crew into the sub-riden patrol lanes of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

There was a time when Mike Elizalde was referred to as a playboy. Perhaps that was because he was a cup-winning polo player, because he owned a yacht and because his innate friendliness and love of people made him definitely social.

But Congress, where he has served for more than three years as a non-voting member, official Washington and the world of international trade know him as a hard-working business man with an intense loyalty to his Philippine government.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — That sign over the gateway to Eric Leinsdorf's farm near Washington, Va., which caused so much disturbance among the natives, has been cleared up. For awhile the people in that sector couldn't make out whether it was written in Chinese or Hebrew. . . . The proprietor of the village drugstore finally offered the conductor and asked him outright. . . . Was it Chinese, or Hebrew? This caused Leinsdorf to grin happily. . . . It was neither Chinese nor Hebrew. . . . Leinsdorf calls his farm "The Sixth" after Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony. . . . The sign, painted in musical notes, carries the symphony's central theme.

JEAN DALRYMPLE, to whom fate is only something to grin at, relates a costly experience over a recent weekend in Rochester, N. Y. She went to Rochester to take in an Irish concert, and while there someone entered her room and walked off with her pocketbook.

Curious as to just what a girl like Jean would carry in a pocketbook — she always carries such huge ones — I asked if she'd mind running down the list of items, and she acquiesced thusly:

(1) $200 in cash, (2) a gold money clip that carried with it a gold pencil, a key, a watch that cost $500, (3) a 50-carat aquamarine that she got last year in Rio, (4) an 87-carat topaz, (5) two extra gold pencils, (6) her eyeglasses, (7) lipstick, (8) gold compact, (9) a ring of keys, (10) a folder of Calif. and N. Y. automobile licenses, (11) personal cards, (12) a folder of sentimental mementoes, (13) and a lace handkerchief ("The prettiest I owned").

Of course, the missing items were never found, despite activities of the hotel authorities and the police. . . . But several days later a package arrived and in it were her driver's licenses, her keys and the sentimental mementoes. . . . Not a word accompanied the package. . . . The 200 bucks, and the topaz and the aquamarine, was still whistling down the wind.

DUSOLINA GIANNINI, the Met's soprano, is frequently mistaken for a foreigner. . . . As a matter of fact, she was born in Philadelphia and obtained her entire musical education in this country. . . . She prefers living in the country to any other place. . . . It's the birds. . . . They help her singing. How does she account for this? . . . Birds are the only true singers in the world, she says. . . . They never sing off key. They fill the air with such pure song that you can't help being benefited by it. That's also one reason why Lily Pons keeps an aviary in her home. She says the birds help her sing better.

At the August School Board meeting on Monday night Miss Mary Handler, of Indiana, Pa., was elected to fill the position in typing and shorthand made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Jane Johnson. Joseph Passaro, who has been teaching commercial and social subjects, was elected to the position of coach, and instructor in physical education and health. This leaves vacant his former position. The resignation was received from the former girls' coach and physical director, Miss Adalee Whitesell, who is now with the Army auxiliary corps.

School will open this year on August 31st, with Labor Day, Sept. 7th, off. It was reported to the board that the buildings were nearly cleaned. The desks in the high school have been refinished and that all the floors have also undergone a refinishing job.

Bids have been let for a new room to be added to the main high school building for a music room. It will be located in the "T" between the commercial room and the auditorium. It is hoped that the room can be completed this fall.

Liggett became interested in the 7,500-acre forest area during a visit there in 1912 and decided the state should acquire it for a state park. Organizing the Cook Forest Association, he began a campaign for its purchase.

He won the fight in 1927 when the state appropriated $500,000 and the public added for its acquisition. Since its creation, Liggett spent many months in the park.

MRS. MURDOCK
TAKES A CASE

Chapter 38
Call From Joyce

ACK FENNER swung his little sedan into the driveway, drove under the porte-cochere, and opened the door.

"We might as well use the society entrance."

Murdoch eyed him glumly. "I don't like this much."

"You've got the wrong attitude," Fenner said, opening the door. "You were married to her and now—"

"That's got nothing to do with me," Murdoch said. "I just don't like the idea of trying to bully me when I don't think she knows anything about the case anyway."

"Look," Fenner became imperiously patient. "This dame has got definite hook-up with Raeburn.
Right? And your wife can put Raeburn in the chair practically unhindered. If Raeburn finds out—and he wouldn't have a chance to snarl if he can read a paper and put two and two together—he's going to hope something happens to her, right?"

"Oh, quiet!" Murdoch said.
"Get out. We'll talk to her."

The butler looked doubtful when he opened the door.

"Mrs. Losado is engaged at the moment."

"We'll wait," Fenner said and closed the door.

Murdoch followed. "Just say to Mr. Murdoch would like to see her. Tell her I won't keep her waiting."

He had been moving along the port corridor as he spoke and as now nearly to the main hall, he butler shrugged with his eyes
cast down and withdrew, and presently Hestor appeared.

"Why, Kent, how nice—"

She stopped abruptly, seeing Fenner, and the smile faded. She looked questioningly from one to the other, and Murdoch made the introduction.

"I've heard a lot about you,"
Fenner said. "And all of it true."

Hestor looked him up and down, with some hauteur at first and then, seeing his grin, with more interest.

"Would that be a compliment?"
he asked.

"It would."

A smile touched her glance and he turned to Murdoch. "John Nason's here. Would you rather wait or—"

"Nason?" Murdoch hesitated, reading the name an injection which stimulated many dormant thoughts. "No. He might be interested in this too."

John Nason rose when they entered the drawing room, blond, square-faced and powerful-looking.
Beneath the bushy brows his gray eyes examined the trio in the swift glance and then became expressionless.

Hestor—Angry

HE sat down and the others followed.

"The police haven't been here, have they?" Murdoch asked.

"They telephoned," Hestor said.
"I told them they could come after lunch."

"Do you know why they called?"

"About Perry Clarke, I presume."

Murdoch glanced at Fenner, knowing that if he did not continue, the detective would.

"Have you seen Raeburn?"

"Why—no."

"Have you been in touch with him at all?"

Hestor's glance slid over to Nason and came back. "I'm afraid I don't understand," she said. "I've just told you."

"A man by the name of Hard-acker was murdered last night," Fenner said. "Apparently by the same person who killed Perry Clarke. Hardacker was a private detective, and he was working for Raeburn. The way it looks now,
Raeburn is the one who killed him—and Clarke."

"And how," she asked, her glance resentful, "does that concern me?"

"You know Raeburn," Murdoch said.

"And we thought you might have some line on him," Fenner added.

Organization of Forest Fire Fighting Unit Being Started

The organization of the new Civilian Defense Forest Fire Fighters Service in Warren and Forest counties is beginning, and the preliminary steps in the selection of the leaders of the new service have been taken. It is expected that definite dates will soon be set for the enrollment of the men and women who will take part in this new civilian defense service.

The Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters has a very efficient forest fire protection organization in the Conewango Forest District, which includes Warren county and most of Forest county. This organization has been operating successfully in protecting all the forest land in this district for over twenty years, which greatly simplifies the planning for this new service in Warren and Forest counties. Although it is expected that the present organization will be capable of handling the normal fires that occur during the fire seasons, it will not be able to cope with a situation that could develop from large numbers of incendiary fires set by the enemies of this nation. For this reason, the auxiliary Forest Fire Fighters Service must be established, so it can function as a trained unit as soon as possible. This new service, however, will be kept entirely separate from the present state organization, except in time of emergency.

Even though the present state organization will be kept as a separate unit, it will be used in the organization of the Forest Fire Fighters Service, and a portion of the paid personnel of the U. S. Forest Service and the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, state forest fire wardens and their leading crew members will be a definite part of the new service.

If this new service is a success, every person living in forested communities, as well as those living in the towns of Warren and Forest counties, must take an active part in the organization and operation of this vital part of civilian defense. In an emergency it will depend upon the persons enrolled in the new Forest Fire Fighters Service whether valuable farms, woodlands, homes and even entire towns are destroyed and industrial activity curtailed. All of the things that could be destroyed by forest fires belong to you, the people of these counties, and therefore it is up to you to do all in your power to prevent their being wantonly destroyed by ravage of uncontrolled forest fires. See that those fires that normally burn do not start, and be ready to enroll in the Forest Fire Fighters Service when the time comes for enrollment.

Ludlow Lutheran Church To Observe Sixtieth Anniversary

Members of the Moriah Evangelical church, of Ludlow, have completed plans for the observance of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the church, to be held on Saturday and Sunday, August 8 and 9, it was announced today.

Wildcat Park at Ludlow will be the scene of an informal gathering on Saturday afternoon, when old friends may renew their friendship and talk about days gone by. At five o'clock the family groups will assemble for a picnic supper. Each group will furnish its own basket lunch. Coffee will be served free of charge by the Ladies' Aid. The historical meeting will be held at the grandstand at eight o'clock. A program consisting of greetings by pastors, historical sketch and vocal and instrumental numbers will be presented.

Sunday's program will open at 9:30 a. m. with the Sunday school session, at which time the visiting pastors will speak.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:30 a. m. There will be two sermons, one in Swedish by the Rev. Carl Lundgren, of Houtzdale, and one in English by the Rev. Robert E. Olson, of Coatesville. The Rev. A. S. Pearson, of Montclair, N. J., and the Rev. Harry A. Peterson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., will distribute the sacrament. The church choir will furnish special music at this service.

A confirmand reunion will be held in the Olmsted Gardens at 3:30 p. m. All confirmands will meet at the church at three o'clock and will march in a body to the gardens. The Rev. A. S. Pearson will give the main address.

Confirmands who have entered the ministry will bring greetings and the choir will furnish several selections. The Rev. Carl H. Gronquist will play a cornet solo. At the close of the confirmand reunion, all will be invited to visit the upper gardens.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend these meetings.

Two former pastors, the Rev. A. S. Pearson and the Rev. Carl H. Lundgren, will return to Ludlow for the anniversary celebration. The Moriah Evangelical Lutheran church was organized January 31, 1882. August Berggren, the first secretary of the congregation, returned to Sweden. It is not known whether or not he is still alive. If he is not living, Mrs. Hulda Jacobson, 27 Glenwood street, Warren, is the only survivor.

ISLAND PARK RESERVED

In a statement issued this morning, Warren Kay, who is in charge of reservations for Island Park at Youngsville, stated that the park is reserved exclusively for the Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Company picnic on Saturday and no other picnics can be accommodated.

One of the most challenging and provocative books is Raoul de Roussy de Sales' The Making of Tomorrow, an unforgettable picture of the modern democracies and the ideas which control their being. The emphasis throughout is on America as the crucial determinant of the present crisis. Soon after it had been announced as a Book of the Month Club selection, The Atlantic Monthly's comment was, "Not since Lord Bryce's American Commonwealth has there been a scrutiny of our American way of life comparable to that which Raoul de Roussy de Sales has compressed in The Making of Tomorrow". It is certainly

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness about the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

BANK SHOTS

BY FLOYD PASSINGER, Sports Editor

When two teams get together and play the type of ball game that the Eagles and Hospital produced Tuesday evening, it's high time that the Loyal Order of Community Fans got together to give them a little stronger support. We can count seven or eight of the 24 games on the regular season card in the Sunset League this summer that were exceptionally fine diamond exhibitions, and while they didn't top Tuesday evening's tussle, they were worth more than the fifteen cents admission for regular league games. But the largest crowd to pass through the gate at Russell Field this year was 213—out of a town of 15,000. Tuesday night the paid admissions actually were 140 all told, and that is disgraceful. The Hospital and the Forge under current circumstances should offer a closer series than they might have had it been played a month ago, and if community fans like the sport at all they should feel it their obligation to talk it up, bring their friends, and really make it a neighborhood scrap with plenty of rivalry, cheering, booing and the true American spirit that should go with every sport in this nation, and in this town. The series opens tonight, and we're looking for a bigger crowd than the small turnout which saw a major league ball game for two bits Tuesday.

Looking into the crystal ball, we're willing to wager that the Irvine struggle hold over the Swansons is about to give way and that the nine game jinx held by the NFO clouters will be broken somewhere along the way in the Sunset League series. The two teams now seem to be evenly matched, more so than at any other time this summer, and if the series doesn't go at least four games, we're going to be surprised. The Forge has been seriously crippled recently by the losses of Bill Caffery to the navy, Eddie Burns to the marines, and latest, "Red" Hajnik, the one-man powerhouse, also to the navy. Freddie Jagliardi has an arm so sore even Absorbine Jr. has little effect on it, and probably will see little action in the series. That leaves only "Diz" Hines and Frank Kulick of the regular pitchers ready to do any elbowing, and Kulick has been an important man around first base this year. On the other hand, the Hospital has won its past four contests, all except the Tuesday night fracas by wide margins, and are in the form that kept them rolling along at a merry clip last year. Joe Massa is slated to re-join the Swansons for the second game of the series Monday evening, and for each remaining encounter thereafter, and this should bolster the institution nine to some extent. So don't give up on the baseball season locally yet, there still remain some pretty fair country clout parties according to the form sheet.

As the deadline neared last night there had been very few entries in the city-wide tennis tournaments, and most of them had been in the senior singles championship event. The net sport is so dead in this town you can't even get its pulse any more, but a couple of years from now, and if Playaground Director "Heinie" Kolpien's plans don't go astray, you probably will see a remarkable change. In the meanwhile, something might be done in the way of providing more community courts. That might perk up the interest a bit.

RIP SEWELL IN SHUTOUT OVER BRUINS

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pitching always is the main-spring of baseball, but yesterday it was almost the whole works in the major leagues.

In the greatest one-way concentration of pitching prowess this season, five of the seven games played ended in shutouts and not a single home run was produced in the entire card. In fact, there was only one triple.

Rookie Max Macon, pitching his first complete game since joining the Brooklyn Dodgers several weeks ago, muffled the New York Giants to two hits in winning 4-0 and for the first five frames had a no-hitter.

John Beazley of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Cecil (Tex) Hugheson of the Boston Red Sox each hurled three-hitters, the former trimming the Cincinnati Reds, 5-0, and the latter stopping the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-0.

But Hal Newhouse pitched five-hit ball and lost in the rarest game of all as Don Kolloway stole home to give the Chicago White Sox a 1-0 decision over the Detroit Tigers.

All the National League activity was at night. In one of the best games Truett (Rip) Sewell blanked the Chicago Cubs, 3-0. The Pirates put an end to a scoreless pitching duel between Sewell and Les Fleming by getting all their runs in the seventh on a walk and four singles after two were out. Each team made six hits.

Although he didn't get a shutout Tommy Hughes pitched five-hit ball at Philadelphia to lead the Phils to their second straight victory over the Boston Braves, 5-2.

Tex Hughson, Red Sox—Blanked Athletics on three hits.
Rip Sewell, Pirates—Kept six hits scattered to whitewash Cubs.

During World War I airplane engines needed overhauling 50 hours; today's engines go 600 hours without repairs.

ALLIE STOLZ AND WRIGHT MIX TONIGHT

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR
New York, Aug. 6.—(P)—Silly as it sounds, Newark's Allie Stolz takes on Featherweight Champion Chalky Wright of Los Angeles in Madison Square Garden tonight with the lightweight title as his goal.

Wright's championship, recognized by the New York State Athletic Commission, but not by the National Boxing Association, will not be at stake. But a victory for Stolz virtually would assure him a shot at the 135-pound crown, worn by Sammy Angott.

Stolz has met Angott once and lost to him by a decision so close that the Newark battler figures the title will be his the next time he can qualify for a bout with the champ.

Wright also will be prepping for a title bout tonight since he will defend his 126-pound championship against Charley (Lulu) Costantino Sept. 25.

Unhampered by weight restrictions, Wright probably will come in at around 129 pounds when they enter the ring at 10 p. m. (EWT) to go 10 rounds or less, but he will be giving away about four pounds.

In spite of the Californian's 15 years' experience in the ring, or possibly because of that, Stolz is rated the favorite at odds of 5 to 2. listee of the U. S. service is at present stationed in Missouri where he is a student of airplane mechanics.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence French were weeked visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Akers and Mrs. L. R. Stryker.

Relatives of James and Joseph Whyte and Leo Russell have received word that they have been transferred from Camp Livingston, La., to Seattle, where they will remain for the duration of the war and be employed on the new Alaska road construction work, now underway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barrett, Timbuck, Mr. and Mrs. John Cousins and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cucuzza are Bradford visitors of the J. J. Swatts.

Gale Smith has returned to West Hickory after spending the weekend at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Marsh spent Sunday with relatives at Oak Hill.

STRUCK BY SAW

J. F. Collings, of 111 Second avenue, is in the Warren General Hospital with a scalp laceration, sustained about 10:30 o'clock this morning when he was struck on the head by a saw while working at the plant of the Crescent Furniture Company. His condition is not serious.

COMING AND GOING

Miss Esther E. Johnson, 623 Conewango avenue, has returned from a trip during which time she visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Maple Shade, N. Britain has promised India her independence after the war.

Other developments in the far Pacific war theater:

Battle of Australia—Imperial Tokyo headquarters asserted that Japanese naval forces had occupied three more islands between Timor and New Guinea, thereby completing the tight-linked chain of potential invasion bases spreading in a vast arc above Australia.

A communiqué said the Japanese had taken Kei, Aru and Taninbar islands, which lie 375 to 500 miles north and northwest of Australia.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported quiet on the New Guinea front, where the Japanese have started a menacing drive toward the key Allied outpost at Port Moresby.

China War—Chinese headquarters announced that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's armies were attacking a string of Japanese outposts between the port of Wenchow and the Kiangsi-Chekiang rail line to the northwest.

The town of Suichang, midway between the rail line and Japanese-held Lishui in southern Chekiang province, was reported recaptured.

for materials necessary to make hundreds of war-essential products.

Noting that the board had allocated a certain amount of rubber to be made from both agricultural products and petroleum, Mr. Roosevelt said that both types of plants now are being constructed and that others are planned for construction "at the greatest possible speed."

The president said that to take the problem out of the hands of an experienced board would disrupt a unified and expeditious war production program.

The production of rubber from grain, even under the present program, Mr. Roosevelt said, would require almost 100,000,000 bushels. Despite great grain reserves, he added, we must bear in mind a steadily expanding demand for grain for the armed services of both the United States and the other United Nations.

City welder, from the water at 3:25 p. m. yesterday—a rescue that bordered on the miraculous, the guardsmen said, since he had been in the water for 7 1/2 hours.

A life jacket so water-logged that it weighed approximately 50 pounds when La Bean was rescued had kept the husky, six-footer afloat for three days and three nights from the time the fishing party's cruiser had struck a rocky reef and foundered.

Not long before, the body of La Bean's wife, Dorothy, 26, had been recovered. It was the ninth body to be found.

Stocks Secure

Finger-Hold

On Recovery

BY VICTOR EUBANK

New York, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Selected stocks got a finger-hold on recovery today but market leaders generally were unable to grasp advancing trends.

Depressing Russian news and other confusing international symptoms were blamed mainly for chilling the bidding urge although continued lack of any liquidation of importance was viewed as a hopeful factor. Light investment buying provided some support.

The direction was indefinite at the start and, near the fourth hour, minor fractional variations either way were the rule. Numerous issues remained sluggish.

Bonds steadied. Commodities were mixed.

Occasional plus marks were shown by shares of U. S. Steel, Great Northern, Phelps Dodge, Texas Co., General Motors, U. S. Gypsum and International Harvester. In the watering class were American Telephone, Du Pont, Sears Roebuck and Owens-Illinois.

Harrisburg, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Informing Governor James that Auditor General E. Clair Ross has given mercantile and inheritance tax jobs to 27 of the 52 Philadelphia Democratic ward leaders, Dr. Edward B. Logan, secretary of revenue, said their total annual salaries were $103,000.

Ross declined to comment. He and the secretary of revenue currently are engaged in a dispute over the collection of the two levies. Logan charged unjustified payroll and expense deductions had been authorized by Ross and that unnecessary employees had been added. Ross replied: "The Republican campaign has started."

Draft Boards Are Seeking Delinquents

Local selective service boards are searching for a half dozen registrants who are listed as being delinquent after having failed to return their questionnaires or report for physical examination, it was reported today. In each case, it was stated, the man has changed his address without notifying the draft board.

Included in the group is one enemy alien registered with Local Board No. 2. He is Mike Baza, whose last known address was Box 153, Waterford. Baza is said by his draft board here to have failed to report for his preliminary physical examination when notified to do so.

Another registrant who failed to report for a preliminary physical examination is Jack Augustine Jenkins, whose last known address was 807 Lexington avenue, Warren. Jenkins was examined once and placed in Class I-B. However, when a notice was sent to him to report for re-examination he could not be found. He is registered with Local Board No. 1.

Four others registered with Board No. 1 are reported as being delinquent, having failed to return their questionnaires. They are Russell R. Price, Jr., Cabin 13, Elberta Beach, Vermillion, Ohio; Eugene Debbis Ferris, 102 Walnut street, Warren; Robert Edwin Speidel, 10 Water street, Warren, and Pete Gallines, 2047 East 77th street, Cleveland, Ohio.

It was stated that two of the cases already have been turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The others will be turned over to the F. B. I. if the local boards are unable to locate the men.

Surprise Air Raid Drill And Blackout In Two-State Area

Residents of Warren county can look forward to a surprise air raid drill and blackout sometime during the balance of this month and officials of the Warren County Defense Council are checking all details of the organization's set-up to make certain that the test is a success here.

Defense officials, at a conference in Philadelphia yesterday, decided that such a surprise test would take place jointly in Pennsylvania and New Jersey sometime during the period from August 6 to September 1.

Even the length of the test is a secret. Civilian defense workers of the two states will be mobilized by signals from defense headquarters transmitted through regular warning channels, it was announced.

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Philadelphia, the test will be a total blackout during which all traffic will stop and all lights will be extinguished except those at railroads, airfield beacons and obstruction lights, radio tower lights and navigation lights.

The joint drill was agreed upon several weeks ago as a means of coordinating the blackout preparations of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. It will cover 53,700 square miles with a population of nearly 15,000,000 people.

All units of the Warren County Defense Council have been working hard since their organization to prepare for such a test and it is expected that the local civilian defense workers will be completely ready for the drill.

In connection with the preparations for the forthcoming test, it was announced that plans are going forward for using amateur radio stations in the defense program. The State Council of Defense has called a conference for August 11 to discuss the plans.

An application already has been sent in by F. W. Waite, commander of the Warren county control center, for permission to use short wave radio as an auxiliary means of communication. This activity here will be under the direction of Harold Passenger, communications officer of the control center, working under Commander Waite.

It was stated that a program will be worked out for Pennsylvania under a new ruling by the Federal Communications Commission which permits limited activation of the amateur stations for two-way communications between control centers and citizens defense corps protective forces during an emergency. Heretofore, all amateur stations have been under wartime ban.

Amateur radio operators who are needed and who volunteer their services will work under strict orders of the commanders of control centers. Those who are accepted will become members of the citizens defense corps and their use of short-wave radio will be restricted to civilian defense needs.

Pupils From Columbus May Go To Corry

Faced by the loss of M. S. Bonney, principal, who has asked for a leave to enter a defense industry, and confronted with other difficulties, school directors of Columbus township are considering the closing of the high school at Columbus for the 1942-43 term if arrangements can be made with the Corry school district to absorb the students. Between seventy and eighty students would be affected.

At a meeting of the township school board on Tuesday evening, the situation confronting the district was given further consideration and it was decided to contact Corry school officials on possible attendance of the Columbus High students at Corry High School, costs of tuition and other details.

It was also decided to contact various teachers' agencies to determine if a satisfactory replacement for Mr. Bonney might be made, while efforts will be made to iron out other difficulties which have arisen at Columbus.

Superintendent Ralph S. Dewey, of the Corry public schools, said yesterday that the Corry district had not been contacted as yet by the Columbus township directors. He said, however, that the reduced enrollment at the senior high school in Corry during the past year or two with a probable further decrease in attendance the coming term might make it possible to absorb the Columbus students without too big a burden on the system.

H. L. Blair, Warren county superintendent of schools, stated today that the proposal to close the Columbus High School is a good one, both from the standpoint of the teaching situation and also from a financial viewpoint. He is in Columbus today to determine the decision of the directors there.

Final Period Under Way At Scout Camp

The fourth and last period at Camp Olmsted, summer camp of the Warren County Boy Scout Council, began yesterday. In spite of a rainy season Scouts attending report the program one of the finest in recent years, and many are already looking forward to next year's camp.

The advancement program has been unusually good with training being offered in first aid, personal health, public health, pioneering, aquatics, hiking and general camping. Nearly every troop which has been in camp thus far has made some type of camp improvement; improvements thus far include a number of rustic bridges, an obstacle course, safety railings at the camp waterfront and a number of repairs to existing equipment, all of which the Scouts feel that they own and are responsible for.

One of the most pleasant surprises to leaders and Scouts alike was the presentation of a gold fringed silk American flag by a delegation of the Warren Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose. The flag was presented in appreciation of Scout services rendered during their recent convention. The dedication was headed by Walter E. Kiser, Secretary of the local lodge.

The closing ceremony for camp will be held Tuesday evening of next week and next Wednesday at noon the season will be officially completed.

Former Dunn Pupils In Annual Reunion At Garland School

The 32nd annual reunion of pupils of Prof. C. H. Dunn was held at the Garland school house. At 1 p. m. 50 or more were seated at tables on the lawn and partook of a delicious picnic dinner.

Following dinner a business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Laura Dairymple, and Mr. Dunn and 22 pupils responded. Remarks by Asa Lindoll, of Norwalk, O., were followed by a letter which had been written by Arch Bristow and related to old times in Garland.

Letters were also read from Walter Upton, of Centerville, and Nettie Dearth, of Lakewood. It was decided to hold the reunion the same day and same place in 1943 and all were reminded that Mr. Dunn will celebrate his birthday anniversary on August 20.

The reunion was attended by persons from Jamestown, Clymer and Lakewood, N. Y.; Norwalk, O.; Warren, Clarendon, Youngsville, Sheffield, Tidoute, Corry, DeYoung, Torpedo and Spring Creek.

Hay Fever To Be Increased This Season

Hay fever sufferers here, as well as those throughout the state, are going to find their lot harder to bear this year as a result of recent heavy rains which have encouraged the growth of weeds causing the affliction.

To make things worse, neither agriculture nor health authorities can offer any comfort for those who are allergic to the pollens which usually start circulating about August 15.

While Warren residents and those in other low parts of the state must continue to suffer if they remain here, those living in the neighboring borough of Kane fare better. A borough ordinance there requires householders in the 2,200-foot high community to eradicate all ragweed in vacant lots and backyards.

Kane officials say their town's location makes it "sneeze-proof" once the ragweed is eliminated, explaining that northwest winds travel over forest lands where there are few fields to contribute sneezing provoking pollen.

Consequently, the approach of the hay fever season finds operators of hotels and rooming houses in Kane hurrying preparations for the several hundred visitors they expect each August.

In commenting on the hay fever situation, John H. Light, state secretary of agriculture, said: "Recent rains have increased the growth of all weeds and are causing farmers a lot of concern because the ground has been too wet to keep them under control."

"Ragweed is no exception. It's growing more profusely and the supposition is that it will bloom to greater extent during a dry spell."

"If that's what causes hay fever it looks like a bad year for the sufferers."

Dr. J. Moore Campbell, of the health department, pointed out that while ragweed may be a major cause of hay fever, "it is not the only cause."

Dr. Campbell said "there has been nothing new" discovered to prevent or control hay fever. He explained that the latest medical treatment was to find out what the sufferer is sensitive to and then "de-sensitize" him.
